What Causes Poverty?

Poverty is largely human-made, often caused by complex issues of war and conflict, unfair trade laws, unjust governments, corruption and plain old-fashioned greed. Poverty is a problem because humankind allows injustice to exist.

But poverty is not inevitable... poverty comes down to people's actions and choices. Making changes is all about how we choose to act. Just as importantly, it is about what we refuse to ignore.

The Millennium Development Goals

In September 2000 the United Nations Millennium Assembly, the largest ever gathering of world leaders, adopted the Millennium Declaration. Setting out eight goals, the declaration aims to reduce poverty by 2015. Some of the most important targets are to:

- halve the number of people living on less than US$1 a day
- reduce the deaths of children under five by three-quarters
- reverse the spread of HIV and AIDS, malaria and other major diseases

There are only seven years remaining in which to achieve these goals by 2015. This is a moment in history that has unique potential, when the stated intentions of world leaders radically echo the teachings of Jesus and the Biblical prophets.

"If you give yourself to the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then your light will rise in darkness." Isaiah 58

"Every gun that is made, every warship launched, every rocket fired signifies, in the final sense, a theft from those who hunger and are not fed, those who are cold and are not clothed."
Former U.S. President, Dwight D. Eisenhower, in a speech on April 16, 1953

What can we do to join our words, beliefs, actions and lives with theirs? In the face of compassion fatigue the church has an opportunity to swim against the tide of disaffection by engaging in the fight against poverty as an adventure and not as a burden.

Action

Prayer

Dear Lord, we pray that You will deliver the needy who cry out, the afflicted who have no one to help. We pray that You will help us to take pity on the weak and the needy and save the needy from death and that you will rescue them from oppression and violence, for they are precious. Amen (Taken from Psalm 72: 12-14)

Biblical Perspective

Read Matthew 25:31-41

In this passage Jesus commends those who give food to the hungry, water to the thirsty and clothes to those who have none. When we reach out in practical ways to help others we are responding to Jesus Himself. How will you, or I, feel 'when the Son of Man comes'? Which side will we be on?

Bono says of fighting poverty:

"God is in the slums, in the cardboard boxes where the poor play house... God is in the silence of a mother who has infected her child with a virus that will end both their lives... God is in the cries heard under the rubble of war... God is in the debris of wasted opportunity and lives, and God is with us if we are with them."

"It's not a coincidence that in the scriptures, poverty is mentioned more than 2,100 times. It's not an accident. That's a lot of air time, 2,100 mentions. (You know, the only time Christ is judgmental is on the subject of the poor.) 'I'm telling the solemn truth: Whenever you did one of these things to someone overlooked or ignored, that was me - you did it to me.' (Matthew 25:40). As I say, good news to the poor."

Grace

Lord God, in a world where many are hungry, we thank you for our food. In a world where many are lonely, we thank you for our company. In a world where many have no hope, we thank you for our faith in Jesus. Amen.
