

Awakened Speaker

Are you a great communicator?
Do you preach with passion?

If you enjoy speaking in public and understand what the Bible says about poverty and injustice, you could support Tearfund by taking action and lifting communities out of poverty. If you're a passionate person with natural enthusiasm you may have the skills to become an Awakened Speaker. We set the bar high for those who speak on our behalf. If you're up for the challenge we'll provide support, training and development.

Person Specification

- A commitment to Tearfund's Basis of Faith, mission and values
- A clear communicator
- Available to speak some Sunday mornings, evenings, occasionally midweek
- Have some Biblical understanding of God's heart for the poor
- Experience of public speaking
- Committed to developing financial support for Tearfund's vision of empowering others to rise out of poverty through Self Help Groups and the Awakened programme.

What will you do?

- Speak at least 4 times a year
- Arrange some of your own speaking engagements
- Be happy to make ask people to give at the end of a talk
- Inspire others to connect with Tearfund's Awakened programme
- Get to communicate the great stories of what the local church is doing around the world
- Complete an accreditation process and training

What will we do?

- Take you through an accredited speaker training process
- Provide regular training
- Give you support from an individual Team member
- Provide you with up to date resources and stories about Tearfund's work
- Provide you with useful feedback after your talks
- Arrange speaking requests for you