GO FOR IT.

CREATE YOUR OWN FUNDRAISER
AND RISE TO THE CHALLENGE.

The world is facing huge challenges, and constant change, one thing that hasn't changed: people like you are still determined to show up for those living in extreme poverty. And you are finding new and innovative ways to do this in the new landscape.

Fun runs, gaming challenges, supper clubs, and digital events—whatever creative ways you can think of to rise to the challenge and show up for your world.

SOME INSPIRATION.

EZRA AND MARA

“

Young Ezra and Mara from Gateshead have been raising money by selling cards and key rings in their front garden. These enterprising siblings raised more than £300.

AMY

“

Amy from Lisburn ran 100k over a month around her neighbourhood. 'Tough challenge but I know you'll smash it,' wrote one supporter - and she did! Amy raised more than £750.

JUST LOVE DURHAM

“

Meanwhile, 35 students from Just Love took part in the Race Across County Durham, a fundraising challenge inspired by the BBC show Race Across the World. They raised £5,000!

But you don't have to exert yourself or organise events to raise money. You just need to do what you love, choose to be compassionate and maybe make a little sacrifice.

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO?

If you've been inspired by Ezra, Mara, Amy and the Just Love Students, then here are some more ideas to fire up your fundraising...

Action

Set up shop

Sell, sell, sell all those unwanted items uncovered in your home, or use your creative skills to make and trade. It could be cakes, plants, key rings, face masks...

Clipper challenge

Don't rush back to the hairdresser, save your money and get buzzing to raise some cash. Film and post it online for maximum support...

Go the distance

Set yourself a running, cycling (or even tap dancing) challenge and see how far you can go. Challenge your friends to add a bit of camaraderie/competition.

Don't Sleep on Poverty

Challenge your youth leaders to plan a Stay awake for you and your group. Do an all nighter with a twist - set challenges & have fun all while raising money for people in extreme poverty

These are just a few ideas, and we are pretty sure you can come up with even better ones...
